10 FATHERHOOD PRINCIPLES

The influence of a father is awesome. "One father," wrote George Herbert, "is more than a hundred schoolmasters." The influence of a father reaches through time on into eternity.

Being a good father is not easy. It requires a number of skills and virtues. The best advice a father can get is from the Bible. Here are a few Biblical principles for fathers.

1. A good father leads his children. This is following the example of great men like Abraham, of whom God said, "For I know him, that he will command his children and his household after him" (Genesis 18:19).

2. A good father sets a positive example. The prophet reminds us of the consequences of a father's actions: "...The fathers have eaten sour grapes and the children's teeth are set on edge" (Ezekiel 18:2).

3. A father provides for his family. Paul wrote: "But if any provide not for his own, and especially for those of his own house, he hath denied the faith, and is worse than an infidel" (I Timothy 5:8).

4. A good father educates his children. In Ephesians 6:4, Paul commands this of fathers. The two Greek words PAIDEIA, which means properly educate by discipline, and NOUTHESIA, which means educate by instruction, tell fathers how to properly educate children in the Christian (i.e., spiritual) life.

5. A good father honors his trust. God permits man to use one of the words (Father) used to identify Himself. What an honor! We must strive to use it honorably.

6. A good father accepts responsibility. He shares equally in being responsible for the birth of a child. Therefore, he is also responsible for the rearing of the child.

7. A father must discipline his children. This is what Eli failed to do, and as a result, God brought judgment on his house (I Samuel 3:13).

8. A father should love his children. All that a father does should come from a heart of love. Read I Corinthians 13:4-7 and exchange the word, "father" for "love."

9. A father must protect his children. Satan seeks to destroy children. A wise father will be on guard against the "wiles of the Devil" (I Peter 5:8).

10. A father works on communications. He remembers the principles in James 1:19, "let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to wrath."

REAL MEN

Recently, I saw a bumper sticker that read: “Real men love Jesus.” The sentiment impressed me because there is such confusion over the role of men in society today. Jesus was a real man. He possessed a moral strength that shames every “wannabe” tough guy out there. So, what does a real man do?

- ❖ A real man is strong enough to protect his children and gentle enough to hold them in his arms.
- ❖ A real man does honest work for honest pay.
- ❖ A real man will pray on his knees in the sight of his children.
- ❖ A real man will return good for evil at the work place, in the church, and at home.
- ❖ A real man will teach his son to be gentle, and his daughter to be strong.
- ❖ A real man respects the elderly.
- ❖ A real man doesn't cheat his boss, his friends, or his wife.
- ❖ A real man brings his family to worship, and teaches his children God's way.
- ❖ A real man forgives.
- ❖ A real man builds, whether it's tables and walls, or the church. He knows that anyone can heap mockery and derision on another's efforts; he will lend a helping hand.
- ❖ A real man listens to children.
- ❖ A real man will admit when he is wrong, and take responsibility.
- ❖ A real man learns humility; a weak man thinks he knows it all.
- ❖ A real man takes God at His word.
- ❖ And, most importantly, a real man loves Jesus.
